A two-way starter for Butte High School has signed a national letter of intent with the University of Montana.

Ron Nord, an assistant coach at UM, announced that Ron Lebsock will join the Grizzly football squad this fall.

"He is not one of those all-everythings, but he is an outstanding college prospect," Nord said of the 6-3, 200 pounder. "He missed his junior year of football and we at the University believe he will come into his own in the college ranks."

Lebsock transferred to Butte from Shadle Park High School in Spokane, Washington two years ago and was ineligible for the 1972 football season.

During his senior season Lebsock started at both offensive and defensive tackle for Coach Dan Peter's Bulldogs. "He improved greatly as the season moved along and as he improved so did our ball club," Peters said. "His goal is to do well in college and I think he will because he is a dedicated athlete."

Peters said Lebsock is working with weights and is also throwing the discus for Butte's powerhouse track team.
